GENERAL

CONDITIONS

Sealed tenders are invited to supply the Computing Laptop for high-end computation as specified in the Tender Notice

1.	The tenders should be addressed to the officer mentioned below in a sealed cover with the tender number and name duly superscribed on the cover. The tenders should be sent only by Registered post/ speed post/ Courier service. Tenders sent by personal delivery will be summarily rejected.
2.	The tenders should be in the prescribed form, which can be obtained from the officer mentioned on payment of the price in cash, also noted below. The cost of tender forms, once paid, will not be refunded. Tenders which are not in the prescribed form are liable to be rejected.
3.	Earnest Money Deposit (EMD) of 2.5% of the estimated value should be submitted through crossed bank drafts and the tenders. Firms which are eligible for EMD payment exemption should submit the relevant documents. Others will not be accepted.

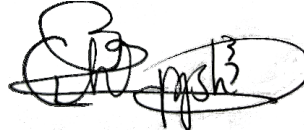

4.	Intending tenderers should send their tenders to the below-mentioned officer on the due date and time (noted). In any circumstances, no tender received after the specified date and time will be accepted. The rates will be considered firm for acceptance till the date mentioned. Tenders not stipulating a period of firmness and tenders with price variation clause and 'Subject to prior sale' condition are liable to be rejected.
5.	The tenders will be opened on the appointed day and time in the office of the Principal Investigator, in the presence of such tenderers on their nominees who may be present at that time.
6.	The tenders shall invariably specify in their tenders the delivery conditions, including the time required for the supply of articles tendered for.
7.	a. The tender shall specify whether the articles offered bear the Indian Standards Institution certification Mark. In such cases, they shall produce copies of the certification mark and their tender to support it. b. The University reserves the right to reject offers for importing goods if the Import Trade Control Policy in force at the time of contract award prohibits or restricts such imports.
8.	The final acceptance of the tenders rests entirely with the university, which does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender. But the tenderers, on their part, should be prepared to carry out such portion of the supplies included in their tenders as may be allotted to them.
9.	In the case of materials of a technical nature, the successful tenderer should be prepared to guarantee satisfactory performance for a definite period under a definite penalty.
10.	Communication of acceptance of the tender typically constitutes a concluded contract. Nevertheless, the successful tenderer shall also execute an agreement to fulfil the contract within the period specified in the acceptance letter. The contractor shall have to pay all stamp duty. Lawyer's charge and other expenses incidental to the execution of the agreement. Failure to execute the agreement within the specified period will entail the penalties in para 11 below.
11. a	a. The successful tenders shall, before signing the agreement and within the period in the letter of acceptance of his tender, deposit a sum equivalent to 5 per cent of the value of the contract as security for the satisfactory fulfilment of the contract. The amount of security may be deposited as Bank Guarantee endorsed in favour of the above officer. Suppose the successful tenderer fails to deposit the security and execute the abovementioned agreement. In that case, any loss incurred by the Government on account of the purchase will be recovered from the defaulter, who will, however, not be entitled to any gain accruing thereby, If the defaulting firm is a registration firm, their registration is liable to be cancelled.
b.	In cases where a successful tenderer, after having made partial supplies, fails to fulfil the contracts in total, all or any of the materials not supplied may, at the discretion of the purchasing Officer, be purchased by means of another tender /quotation or by negotiation or from the next higher tenderer who had offered to supply already and loss, if any, caused to the University shall thereby together with such sums as may be fixed by the university towards damages be recovered from the defaulting tenderer.
c.	Even in cases where no alternate purchases are arranged for the materials not supplied, the proportionate portion of the security deposit based on the cost of the materials not supplied at the rate shown in the tender of the defaulter shall be forfeited, and the balance alone shall be refunded.
12.	The tenderers shall quote the percentage of rebate (discount) offered by them in case the payment is made promptly within fifteen days/within one month of taking delivery of stores.
13.	The tenderer shall supply materials according to the standard sample and specifications.
14.	Tenderers should be prepared to accept orders subject to the penalty clause for forfeiture of security in case of supply default or failure to supply within the stipulated period.

15.	Telegraphic quotations will not be considered unless they give details of prices and are immediately followed by confirmation with complete relevant details posted before the due date of the tender.
16.	The quoted prices should include all taxes, duties, cess, etc., which are or may become payable by the contractor under existing or future laws or rules of the country of origin/supply or delivery during the course of execution of the contract.
17.	The tenderer will invariably furnish the following certificate with their bills for payment:- “Certified that the goods on which GST has been charged have not been exempted under the GST Act made thereunder and the charges on account of GST on these goods are correct under the provisions of the relevant Act or the rules made thereunder. Certified further that we (or our Branch or Agent) Address.....are registered dealers in the state of Under Registration No..... for the purpose of GST. “
18.	The Department of Revenue, Ministry of Finance, Government of India, vide notification No.45/2017 Central Tax (Rate) dated 14/11/2017. Exempted the following goods from the GST leviable thereon under section 9 of the Act to a concessional rate of 5% (2.5% CGST and 2.5% SGST) subject to the conditions specified therein <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Scientific and technical instruments, apparatus, and equipment (including computers) (b) Accessories, parts, consumables and live animals (experimental purpose) (c) Computer software, Compact Disc-Read Only Memory (CD-ROM), recorded magnetic tapes, microfilms, and microfiches.
